

CHINESE TROOPS PURSUE BANDITS AFTER KIDNAPING

17 Americans Are Captured
After Bandit Army
Derails Train.

THOUSANDS FLOCK
TO BANDITS GANG

Ultimatum Warns Captives
Will Be Killed Unless
Pursuit Is Ended.

Shanghai, May 7.—Ten thousand Chinese troops today were in pursuit of the bandit army which derailed the Shanghai-Peking express capturing 17 Americans and 12 other foreigners including subjects of England, France and Italy.

The bandit army today had increased from the estimated 1,000 who wrecked the train and captured its passengers to 8,000, having been strengthened by additions of well armed disbanded troops and notorious bandits.

Of the 300 odd passengers aboard the express train—one of China's crack trains—only six foreigners and 27 Chinese escaped the bandit horde which surrounded the train as it left the tracks at a point in Shantung province selected by the bandit chiefs for the holdup.

Great Army of Pursuers

Despite reports of the release of Miss Lucy Aldrich, sister-in-law of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., no direct word has been received from her. She is on a tour around the world from New York via India and had visited here for 10 days. She had intended going to Peking, Japan, and then to Europe.

Despite the ultimatum of the bandits that the captives would be killed unless pursuit was abandoned, a great army has been gathered from four provinces to take part in the chase.

The Americans aboard the train included, in addition to Miss Aldrich, Robert Scripps, American newspaper publisher, touring the Orient; Major Charles Bridge, a party of three by the name of Pratt; a Mr. Carpenter; Lloyd Lehrbach, former American newspaper man of Chicago, and J. B. Powell, former professor of journalism at the University of Missouri, now a correspondent in China.

A relief train has been rushed from Tientsin and advised from Peking today that American Minister Jacob Gould Schurman had left there for Shantung province to investigate the affair.

French, Italian and English consular officials have departed from here to the scene of the holdup in Shantung province.

The bandits, with their captives, are believed to be fleeing for Tushan Hu Lake, a wild rendezvous of outlaws, located in the mountains of South Shantung.

Loot Train, Take Prisoners

The bandit army which derailed the express train near Hsuehchow Sunday morning, killing one foreigner and wounding six Chinese, was made up of disbanded Chinese troops.

All reports received here placed the number of bandits engaged in the holdup at about 1,000. From the meager first hand reports received here it is believed they were ambushed on each side of the track of the Tsin-Hien Pukow railroad from which a rail had been removed. When the train, which was first class in all its appointments, crashed into the ditch they surrounded the train, firing hundreds of shots. After looting the train its passengers, all save the handful that escaped in the confusion, were made captives.

CALL 100 PERSONS AS JURORS PROBE STUDENT'S DEATH

Fisherman Claims He Saw
Struggle In Which
Youth Was Killed.

Chicago, May 7.—More than 100 persons, including Walter Dill Scott, president of Northwestern university, have been summoned to appear before the May grand jury, which convenes today, to tell what they know regarding the disappearance of Leighton Mount, Freshman student at the university, whose body was found a week ago beneath a pier at Evanston.

Charges have been made that Mount lost his life in a class fight with Sophomores and that his body was concealed under the pier after he had accidentally met death in the rough hazing.

Sensational evidence has been furnished by attaches of the state's attorney's office. John Strom, a fisherman, has declared he saw the struggle in which the youth was killed, but officials are not placing strong credence in the story. They will check it over carefully.

Strom said he saw three men carry Mount's body to a pier three blocks from the one under which it was found, and lower it through a hole they had broken in the flooring. There was talk, Strom said, of putting sand in Mount's mouth to quiet his cries.

If, as Strom said, Mount's body was lowered into a hole in a pier, three blocks from where it was found, someone had moved it, a contention which has been advanced previously.

Search was being continued for J. Allan Mills, also a Freshman when Mount disappeared. His actions on the night of the class fight have excited interest in the minds of officers. He was said to have been extremely nervous when he returned home after taking part in the fight. He is said to have gone to California, but no one has been found who has seen him.

PASTOR HURLS ATTACK AT MARATHON DANCES

Dancer Neglects Head-work To Develop Foot-work, Says
Rev. G. A. Beers—Calls Average Public Dance Subject For Thought For Home, Church, School.

In his second address on "Talks to Women About Women," Rev. Beers of the Baptist church Sunday night took for his subject, "The Great Head Dance," drawing the lessons from the account of Salome's dance before Herod and his court, Matthew 14:3-11.

The following excerpts from the sayings of Dr. Frank Crane, were read: "What causes you the most concern, the contents of your skull, or the mass below your collar bone? 'Are your thoughts flabby, uncontrolled, wayward, useless?' 'Where do you get your pleasures? Is it dancing for your feet, meat for your belly, clothes for your back—is all your fun in the cellar? To what part of you is the towel fastened—to your loins or to your forehead?' 'What are you, anyhow; an animal pestered with a mind; or a soul imprisoned in a body?'

Hell's Trivium

"Hell's trivium, wine, women and the dance was employed to make Herod, and his kind, 'lose their heads.' Influenced by wine, carried away by the lust of animalism, men lose their reason, manhood is dethroned as the brute in man demands its prey. God pity men and women whose gratification must be in the cellar department of life!"

The preacher referred to instances when respected citizens had staged scenes similar to this in Herod's

MISSIONARY WILL SPEAK IN SALEM

Head Of Friends Mission In India Expected Here
Next Sunday.

Esther Baird, Newgong, India missionary who is home on a furlough, is expected to speak at the morning service next Sunday at the First Friends church. Miss Baird is superintendent of the Friends mission work there.

Rev. M. M. Coffin, the pastor, preached the fourth of a series of sermons on "The Second Coming of Christ," at the evening service Sunday. This sermon had to do with the tribulation and the millennium. Solos were sung by Mr. and Mrs. Coffin. This series of sermons has been much appreciated by those who are interested in this vital subject and the services well attended. Rev. Mr. Coffin will continue the series next Sunday evening and will speak especially of "Judgment."

A congregational meeting will follow a devotional period at the mid-week service Wednesday evening. At this time plans will be discussed for the remodeling of the church. Choir practice will be held Thursday evening.

drunken court, when even young girls had been employed for such disgraceful affairs.

"The unfortunate girl was sent to a reformatory. The men, who should have been sent to the penitentiary, went scott free. The devil said, 'Get the big fellow,' and wine, woman and the lewd dance appealing to passion carnality and shame toppled manhood from its throne and the king loses his head and puts a life in jeopardy. 'Heels and toes win over heads.'"

Attack Marathon Dancing

"The second head affected was that of the dancer. Where are the thought, sense of womanhood, modesty and chastity that would consent to such an exhibition? Ignored, banished, trampled under foot. Womanly grace, beauty and virtue cast aside in the wild appeal of fleshly pride and passion. Surely, these are heft of reason."

"The thinking world stands aghast at the recent foolishness of the marathon dancers. Something wrong in the upper story, fitly applies to this 'craze.'"

The average public dance, with immodesty in dress, scandalous positions, heathenish music and unholy hours furnishes a subject for thought for the home, church and school. If the standard of so-called public morals is to be maintained, the one institution that menaces that standard must be properly regulated and its dangers reduced to a minimum.

"The dancer, when confronted with a reward for her effort was unprepared to avail herself of the king's offer. Had she developed her head-work as she had her footwork, she

BOY SCOUTS FIELD MEET MAY BE HELD AT ROCK SPRINGS

Invitation Received From East Liverpool; Date
Is June 9.

East Liverpool has invited the scoutmasters of Columbiana county to hold the annual Boy Scout rally and field meet on June 9, as guests of that city, although the meet will take place in Rock Springs park, W. Va. If the invitation, which was brought in person Sunday afternoon by Scoutmaster Harry Fenton and H. C. Donahue, is accepted there will be brought about the unique situation of contesting for the county championship outside the county and even outside of the state.

Last year the meet was held in Salem, Lisbon and East Liverpool also have been hosts to the scouts in years past. Lee R. Chamberlain, scout commissioner of Salem, has received no other bids for the meet, and it is probable that East Liverpool's invitation will be accepted. Already troops 1, 3, 4 and 7 of Salem are making preparations for the 1923 meet which will be held under the same rules and include the same events as were decided upon last year at the county roundtable of scoutmasters held at Lisbon.

With only four weeks intervening before the annual contest, the boy scouts can be expected to settle down to earnest work, practicing knot tying, tent pitching, fire building, bandaging and other regulation scout activities for which points will be awarded.

Each scoutmaster is free to point his protégés toward the big event, for Saturday afternoon witnessed the completion of the blasting of stumps in Centennial park. The scouts helped Service Director John Bristol to dynamite nearly 50 stumps since Feb. 14, and now only a few remain that were too close to residences to be dynamited.

The service director extended particular thanks to the following scouts who have been faithful in responding to this call of civic duty: Joseph Chamberlain and William Miller, Troop 1; Raymond Coubourn, Orville Hoffman, Franklin Davidson, Clarence Davidson and Tony Quest, Troop 7; Albert Sweningson, Troop 4.

The husband, Friend Shook, was killed in a motor truck accident six weeks before the destruction of the family's cottage.

RITCHIE ARRESTS CAFE PROPRIETOR ON BOOZE CHARGE

Uses Handkerchief To Get
Evidence; Takes Prisoner
To Palestine.

John Altem, operator of a soft drink establishment at the corner of Etna st and Broadway, was arrested Saturday afternoon by Constable Earl Ritchie, charged with illegal possession of liquor.

Altem, who recently purchased the cafe from Alex Fratillo, has been under suspicion for some time and his place has been visited by both police and state officers on several occasions.

His arrest Saturday is said to have followed reports that men have been buying liquor in the establishment.

Visiting the place Saturday afternoon, Constable Ritchie declares he entered just as Altem was attempting to pour out a quantity of whisky from a glass container for a sale.

Leaping the bar Ritchie grappled with Altem who attempted to throw the container to the floor and destroy the evidence. During the struggle the bottle was thrown against the wall. Ritchie soaked a quantity of the booze in his handkerchief and gathered pieces of the bottle for evidence. These were sealed and will be used as evidence when Altem faces trial Tuesday.

Altem was taken to East Palestine by Ritchie and in default of bail was placed in the city jail there. He will be given a hearing Tuesday before Mayor Albert W. Ferren, Atty. J. L. Hilton of Canton, counsel for the Ohio Anti-Saloon League, will conduct the prosecution.

Ritchie declared that his intentions in taking Altem to East Palestine instead of before Mayor John W. Post was in order to collect the percentage of the fine allowed by the East Palestine court for apprehension of bootleggers. He declared he had damaged clothes in recent liquor raids staged by East Palestine officers and will be enabled to collect costs to pay for these in this manner.

TREASURY OFFERS 400 MILLION ISSUE

Short Term Notes Planned
To Complete Retiring
Of Victory Loans.

Washington, May 7.—Bringing to an end the first phase of the refinancing of the government's great war-time debt the treasury announces a new offering of $400,000,000 in treasury notes to complete the retiring and notes to complete the retiring and notes to complete the retiring.

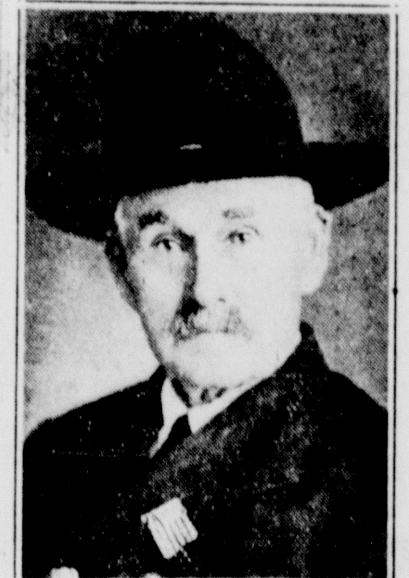

Secretary Mellon at the same time made a statement on the government's fiscal situation in which he declared the treasury's refunding operations had worked out so successfully that all of the short dated debt might be retired gradually from surplus revenues of the government prior to 1928 and without embarrassment to the heavy refinancing necessary in connection with maturity that year of the third Liberty loan.

Mellon predicted that the gross public debt of about $2,400,000,000 by the end of the current fiscal year on June 30, a retirement of about $1,600,000,000 of federal securities since April 30, 1921. In this connection the secretary declared there would be a surplus in the treasury June 30, of $125,000,000 or $65,000,000 more than estimated by Director Ford of the budget who yesterday forecast that government receipts for the fiscal year would exceed expenditures by $60,000,000.

ONE MAN PERISHES IN INCENDIARY FIRE

Police Believe Fire May
Have Been Started To Hide a Murder.

Chicago, May 7.—One man was burned to death, two other men probably fatally burned and two more seriously burned in a fire believed to have been of incendiary origin which early today destroyed a two-story frame rooming house at Gary, Ill., Chicago suburb. The police believe the fire may have been started to hide a murder.

The man known to the dead has not been identified as his body has not been recovered. It was exposed to view by the collapse of a wall. Police officers said they could observe a great gash in the back of the man's head, unexplained since there are no fallen timbers near the body. The ruins were so hot that it was impossible to remove the body.

Police placed under arrest a man who had been discovered fleeing from the house. He gave his name as Peter Kazak, 35, said to have been a boarder at the house. Kozak, according to Captain of Police Plummer, could give no satisfactory explanation of his reasons for fleeing from the burning building without making any effort to arouse its 24 other occupants.

"Barleycorn Kelly," New CorkHeadgear For Men, Is Latest

Atlantic City, May 7.—Dame Fashion gave way to Mr. Style on the Boardwalk Sunday.

More men, who year after year has been content to permit the fair sex to set the pace in apparel innovations, staged a revolt and took the lead—for the day at least. He introduced the cork hat.

Within a half hour of the appearance of the first new twist in headgear it had been dubbed the "barleycorn kelly" and the wearers drew down as much attention from the parading thousands as would have been expected had they adopted a champagne bucket for top pieces.

The cork hats appeared in all the popular shapes that the ordinary straw "kay" hasched in the first big showing today. Fancy grains were showing true rein in the material along with nifty bands and the new bonnets were distinctly the hit of the Boardwalk revue throughout the day.

Wearers declared them more comfortable than the ordinary hay hats because of lighter weight and pointed out the additional advantage of the waterproof cork.

GIGANTIC FRAUD HURLS WALL ST. INTO PANIC

New York, May 7.—An amazing and almost unprecedented attempt to perpetrate a gigantic fraud on Wall st, threw the market into a panic today, shot prices up and down in a zigzag fashion and resulted in immediate attempt on the part of the American Bankers association to run down the men behind the scene. It was a brand new fraud and by its extreme daring, took brokers off their feet. It was in the form of an avalanche of spurious checks all arriving at the same time and carrying the order to buy.

Brokers on receiving the checks accepted them as bonafide. Immediately a buying movement was under way. Prices shot up. Suddenly the wildest excitement took place. Traders learned the checks were spurious. Hasty orders to counteract the buying orders were sent forth. Values broke. The leading stocks in the market, dropped to a new low for the year.

News of the fake check fraud was immediately sent to the American Bankers association. Fifteen investigators were put to work at once.

DR. CONRAD RAIDS HOME IN LEETONIA MONDAY MORNING

Whisky, Wine And Beer Are Found In Many Large
Containers.

BERG ISN'T HELD,
AWAIT ANALYSIS

Search Warrant Is Issued
On Orders From State
Dry Commissioner.

Dry law enforcement in Columbiana county turned its spotlight on County Commissioner Conrad Berg Monday, when Dr. S. E. Conrad, dry law officer, working out of Mayor A. W. Ferren's court in East Palestine, searched Berg's automobile in Lisbon and later searched the Berg home in Leetonia.

The auto contained no evidence but at the home the officer confiscated large quantities of whisky, beer and wines. Dr. Conrad used a search warrant issued by Mayor Ferren under instructions from State Prohibition Officer B. P. McDonald of Columbus.

In Berg's stock at his home in Leetonia were found these quantities of liquors:

Four fifty-gallon barrels of wine, one-half barrel of wine, two barrels of hard cider, seven five-gallon jugs of wine, four ten-gallon jugs of wine, one two-gallon jug of wine, 18 quart bottles of wine, one gallon of whisky, two bottles of beer and other numerous containers filled with liquor.

A number of "empties" were also found by Dr. S. E. Conrad, who conducted the search.

After securing the search warrant Officer Conrad went to Lisbon where he searched Berg's car, finding no evidence. He then encountered Berg, showed him the warrant to search his home and started for Leetonia, accompanied by Berg. After the search was made Berg returned to Lisbon to attend a meeting of the county commissioners.

Samples of each of the containers were taken and will be sent to Columbus for analysis. The rest of the liquor was removed to East Palestine. Mr. Berg was not placed under bond and he will not be called for hearing until a report of the analysis is returned from Columbus.

During the investigation Mr. Berg informed Dr. Conrad that the liquor is some that he had kept stored in his pretzel factory, and that he had just recently removed it from the factory to his residence in Leetonia.

RICH IS ARRESTED ON GIRL'S CHARGE

Young Man, Freed On
Bond, Denies Disorderly
Conduct Charge.

Charged with disorderly conduct and violence, William Rich of East Fifth st, was arrested early Sunday morning by Officers Kirkbride and Bryn and lodged in the city jail until Sunday when he was released on bond of $200 for his appearance before Mayor John W. Post at 7 p. m. Monday for trial.

Rich is alleged to have attempted to assault a young girl, late Thursday night when she was enroute to her home. He is said to have followed her and when she neared her home, stopped her and attempted to place his arm around her.

According to information furnished police, Rich is alleged to have attempted to prevent the girl from going home and a scuffle followed during which she escaped. She was uninjured.

The girl filed an affidavit in police court Saturday night charging Rich with attempted assault. He was arrested at his home early Sunday morning. He denies the charges.

Police say that Rich is charged with having followed the girl on other occasions and that her mother has been forced to meet her to take her home on other occasions because of Rich's attentions.

From Coast To Coast
AMERICAN aviators are monarchs of the air. The great transcontinental nonstop flight has established a new record in world aeronautics.
Lieutenant Carreedy and Lieutenant Kelly are the world's pioneers in this surpassing achievement. Their success opens up a vista of startling speculation with reference to future developments in the future conquest of the ether deeps.

Speeding at an average rate of 100 miles an hour, the ponderous T-2, one of the heaviest machines in use, made its epochal flight under the guidance of daring pilots without the slightest mishap, and New York clasped the hand of California in celebration of a new and surpassing achievement in human experience.

What does the accomplishment of this great feat mean to this nation and to the world? If the slow-moving T-2 can span the continent with ease within 27 hours, what will be the early records made by the swift, lighter machines? The answer is fairly obvious. From New York to San Francisco during the hours of daylight soon may become a commonplace event.

But if a great machine like the T-2 can cross the continent in but a little more than a day, similar great machines as easily can cross from possible enemy shores to our own in crisis of war. The daring young Americans who have demonstrated what can be done in this matter have emphasized further the importance of the airship in future human conflicts between nation and nation. It now readily may be understood how much we may have to depend on this agency in the development of the national defense. The government should not be slow to profit by this latest lesson, whose potentialities for war or peace are beyond computation.

It also may be taken for granted that foreign nations will be spurred to greater effort in the development of the science of aeronautics by this triumph of American inventive genius, courage and endurance. In the meantime, all honor and praise to the gallant adventurers who so conspicuously have distinguished their country by an accomplishment which challenges the wonder, respect and admiration of the civilized world.

Alliance Buys Farm As City Park Site

Alliance, May 7.—The Lorentz farm south of the city was purchased by Atty. Edwin Diehl, acting for the City Park commission at noon Satur-

The tract is approximately 55 acres.

The farm was sold in two tracts.
Atty. Diehl bid in the first tract of six acres for $5,250. The second and large tract went for $19,750.

Purchase of the farm as a city park site was given the formal support of city council at a special meeting Fri-

The park commission, meeting earlier in the evening, laid a recommendation before city council urging the purchase of the site as the opening wedge in an ambitious park and boulevard system encircling Alliance.

HALF OF TRUMBULL FARM LANDS IDLE

Warren, O., May 7.—More than 50 per cent of the farm land in Trumbull county is not being worked this season because the steel mills, with high wages, are attracting men to the manufacturing centers, according to County Farm Agent Gay Miller.

Not only the farm laborer, but the farmers themselves are working in town, especially those owning farms of from three to 50 acres, says Mr.
Miller, who maintains that conditions in Trumbull are as bad or worse than elsewhere in the state. This fact is attributed mostly to the steel mills.

Recently compiled statistics, furthermore, show that numerous farms have been abandoned. In 1910 there were 4456 farms in this county, a large increase over the total of 1909.
Due to the subdivision of farms near lue, to the communities such as Sharps and Warren. But there are now only 2911 farms in the county though the subdividing has been going on more rapidly in the last ten years than during the decade previous, giving evidence of large areas of abandoned acres.

Beginning May 1, My Office
Will be Closed Wednesday
Afternoons and Evenings.

Women Inventing Everything From Planes To New Noses

Women are inventing everything from internal combustion engines and dirigible airships to voting booths and nose straighteners, according to a report to be issued in a few days by the Women's bureau of the U. S. department of labor. This report is a study of the inventions made by women during ten years, as shown by the records of the U. S. patent office, and it uncovers an amazing variety of inventive activities among women.

In the ten years studied more than 5,000 patents were issued to women. By far the larger number of these patents were concerned with household equipment and articles for personal wear and use, but other inventions covered the entire field of industries and professions. The records show that women have invented a large number of devices to facilitate work on farms because they have seen the hardship or the fatigue incurred by one or another method of doing things. The report contains many quotations from such women who told just what had led to the invention they had patented. One woman who had contrived a fertilizer distributor wrote that her invention had been brought about by "Yankee laziness, I reckon—I didn't like the idea of bending my back so much—hence the distributor."

Other fields which have been served by the inventive abilities of women are mining and quarrying; various processes of manufacture for which tools, machinery and methods have been devised; structural equipment, such as road conduits, and house building parts; transportation which includes all kinds of automobile accessories as well as airships, boats and many contrivances for steam and street railways; scientific instruments; ordnance, firearms, and ammunition; medical equipment such as stretchers, bandages, and surgical instruments; office supplies and equipment; toys; children's clothes; camping equipment. This is only a small part of the list which is given in detail in the bulletin.

Office hours 1 to 8 p. m. on every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each week. Remember the days and hours. No. 26 Garfield avenue.

Because of the great variety of the items in the lists given, the Women's bureau draws a conclusion that the work of women along the lines of invention and improvement should be encouraged and developed. The report emphasizes the fact that women are under a considerable psychological handicap when it comes to carrying an invention through from the time of its conception until it is successfully patented and marketed.

As an illustration of this handicap is given a quotation from the encyclopedia which says, in discussing patents, "women, minors, and even convicts may apply for patents under our law." This psychological attitude which places women as being, in many ways, inferior to men, is not borne out by the records, which themselves, the report concludes, do not tell the whole story. For it is not unlikely that many patents taken out by men have originated in the feminine branch of the family.

As an example the report quotes the facts about the first patent ever granted an American. This patent was issued by the British government to "Thomas Masters, planter of Pennsylvania" for a new "invention" for cleaning and curing Indian corn "found out by Sybilie, his wife."

Building Gains 95 Percent In Warren

Warren, May 7.—The value of buildings for which permits have been issued here during the first four months of the year is 95 per cent greater than for the same period in 1922, a report issued by one city building inspector shows.

The greatest increase is noted in dwellings, though increase in other classes has been substantial.

A comparison of permits issued in April, 1922, with those issued in March shows an even greater increase with emphasis again on dwellings.

During the period from Jan. 1 to May 1, 1922, a total of 181 permits was issued for buildings with a valuation of $332,678. For the same period this year 298 permits were issued with a total valuation of $659,310.

54 DEAD, HUNDRED OVERCAME BY GAS POISONING IN OHIO

More than 50 deaths from carbon-monoxide poisoning and 100 partial asphyxiations constitute the winter's sinister record of gas heaters in Ohio as reported to the state department of health. It is safe to assume that this is by no means complete, as reporting began some time after the Lancaster and Columbus tragedies, costing eight lives, directed the attention of the department specifically to the menace.

So the record since Nov. 1, 1922, stands at 54 deaths and 100 partial asphyxiations; with the virtual certainty that there were many unreported cases in both classes, and the added certainty that hundreds, probably thousands, of other persons suffered permanent impairment of health from breathing the products of imperfect gas combustion.

Specifically, there were 39 deaths and 44 partial asphyxiations from gas room heaters, and 15 deaths and 55 partial asphyxiations from gas fired water heaters, hot plates or other gas-burning devices aside from room heaters. There were five deaths and two partial asphyxiations due to automobile fumes in garages.

Carbon-monoxide poisoning, according to Edwin, a well known Berlin authority, is now and since the discovery of fire has been the most widespread poisoning in connection with human life and activities. We have long been familiar with it in industrial pursuits and more recently in connection with motor cars and gas engines in confined places like garages or basements.

A recent report by a consulting gas expert states that there are over 2,000 natural-gas-using towns and over 4,600 manufactured-gas-using towns in the United States, and that gas is used by over one-half of our population. It is estimated that there are over four million users of gas in Ohio alone.

Artificial gas creates a double hazard, as carbon-monoxide is an important component and therefore death may result from simply breathing it, as from unsuspected leaks. Natural gas does not contain carbon monoxide or other readily toxic ingredients, but if burned incompletely, as most frequently happens from a poor or defective air-mixer on a gas stove built on the Dunsen principle, will readily yield death-dealing amounts of the gas. So also will any carbon containing fuel.

The heaviest metal in common use is iridium, which is used chiefly for tipping the nibs of fountain pens.

The prayer service will be held Thursday evening. These meetings are inspiring and helpful.

Friday evening a Mother's Day social will be held by the young women of Mrs. Charles Taylor's class. A good program has been arranged and lunch will be served. A bouquet of flowers will be given the oldest mother and the youngest mother present. All members and friends are invited.

Will Re-decorate Church

At a meeting of the board of trustees held Saturday night the contract for wiring and re-decoration of the church was let. A Salem contractor was awarded the contract for re-decoration. A tile floor will replace the present one in the vestibule. The approximate cost of the work will be $700. The work will be begun immediately. After next Sunday the services will be held in the basement.

It is expected the work will be completed by Sunday, June 10. At this time Children's Day will be observed and an effort will be made to raise enough money to pay for this work.

A great irrigation project, which is of interest because it is located in the heart of the dark continent, has been recently completed. It is known as the Lake Meitz conservation works, and is located along the lower reaches of Sunday's river. It is second only to the great Assuan dam in Egypt in size and importance. The new dam is 150 feet high and the length of the top is 1,150 feet. It impounds 25,700,000,000 gallons of water and submerges 4,900 acres of land. It means the redemption of a great deal of land which will be used for agricultural and stock-raising purposes.

PASTOR HURLS ATTACK

would have had ability to choose, hold and reign over a kingdom offered her. So called physical grace had been developed at the expense of her mentality.

Dance Craze In Schools

"The record of the dance craze in the lives of the student body of our schools is sufficient to cause serious concern on the part of our homes. At class functions, the dance is the center of attraction and though parents protest, and educational boards seek to change this custom they are even met with the terms of the young people that they dance or quit."

"Thus we see the dance instinct is in man; for different reasons he has always danced and possibly always will. The heathen in their horrid unspeakable customs, our native American Indians with their snake, green corn and war dances; our forefathers and their graceful, dignified and sensible steps."

The question confronting us today is whether this natural propensity shall be allowed to run riot and continue its work of moral ruin in so many lives, or whether it shall be judiciously controlled and the lives and characters of our young people safeguarded. Must reason be destroyed and heels win out over heads? The dancer lost her head and losing it, lost the prize her feet had won.

Loses Her Head

The third head involved was that of Herodias, the Bloody Mary of the Bible. Her's was the only brain in a normal condition, but when the opportunity for revenge came, the spirit of hate and murder overpowered her reason and she "lost her head." In the wild passion to get even with the one that had reproved her for her wickedness and when asked by her unthinking daughter to suggest a gift from the king, she seizes the opportune time to secure the killing of John the Baptist.

To some the truth brings repentance, salvation and gratitude; to others, resentment, anger and hatred. Herodias never forgave the faithful preacher, and her time to "get even" has come. She, with the fierceness of a tigress, seizes this opportunity, and we have the spectacle of another "losing their head," as they allow passion and hate to prevail. "Heels over heads" again. The animal in the ascendency.

"Head number four to fall was that of John, the fearless preacher.

Herod, sobered and sorry, feels even a bad promise must be kept and orders John's execution. John is ready. His work is done. He had been faithful to sinful humanity—To the throngs that came to hear him! to the individual transgressor. Question—Was John too outspoken, severe, undiplomatic?

"A spirit of our times suggests smooth sayings. The preacher and the church should not thus rebuke or expose the sins that threaten life, home and society. It is no pleasant task to be a preacher, teacher or leader in a genuine crusade against evil. Many a preacher has lost his "official head" because the truth he preached "hurt" some of his worldly members.

"John the Baptist lost his physical head but his life as a preacher of righteousness, will ever remain; measuring up in its devotion, loyalty and intense solicitation for those endangered by sin. Head, heart, virile Christian manhood on the throne.

Wednesday evening Rev. Mr. Beers will preach on the topic, "A Good Mother-in-law."

My sister and I were taking a first journey away from the old home to college. We had a short wait in a large city and went into a hotel, where the solicitous clerk insisted upon our resting in a fine sitting room with two bedrooms adjoining. After an hour or so we started out.

As a passing thought I asked the man at the desk if there were any costs.

To my utter amazement and horror he replied, "Eight dollars."—Chicago Tribune

Electric Service Never "Soars" in Price!

Nearly all other commodities do. Look at sugar! Going up again after striking rock bottom. Every time you enter a store you find some other necessity rising in price after the recent slump. Some commodities have never really gotten back to normal since the war—probably never will.

But your rate for electric current remains the same—month in and month out—and this in spite of the mounting costs of material and labor which this company is constantly facing.

Think of "press the button" convenience any time—day or night! Yet your average daily current consumption costs less than the bottle of milk left at your doorstep!

WILL MARK GRAVES OF UNKNOWN DEAD

Indianapolis, Ind., May 7.—Success of the American Legion Graves Endowment fund, providing flowers in perpetuity for the resting places of American World war dead, means that 1813 unmarked graves of heroes will annually be decorated. In the eight United States cemeteries in Europe, now shrines of patriotism for Americans, rest the bodies of nearly a regiment of "unknown dead." The inclusion of the unmarked crypts among the 32,000 other American graves in Europe, will reconsecrate their graves with the others still remaining in foreign soil.

Practically every vest of the Legion in the nation has joined in the campaign to raise this endowment fund, that the memories of those who made the supreme sacrifice shall be recalled. Post members have set out determined not only to raise the quota set for them for this fund, but to exceed this whenever possible. Mass meetings, personal solicitations and broad publicity campaigns have been utilized by legionnaires to secure the necessary funds for the endowment. Increases in receipts have been steadily noted, and many department organizations of the Legion are already over the quota set. Mexico has reported 68 per cent more than allocated, and France has raised 160,000 francs for the fund. Contributions from nationally known men and women are received almost daily.

MEMORIAL PLANS AT COUNTY SEAT

Declares Tanlac Entirely Overcome Nervous, Run-down Condition, Insomnia and Loss of Appetite. Feels Like New Woman.

"The Tanlac treatment gave all the thanks for my splendid health. I have not the slightest doubt but that it is the best medicine made, and I don't intend to be without it," declared Mrs. Anna Throckmorton, 529 Sixth St., Portsmouth, Ohio.

"I started taking Tanlac last November after suffering for months with a dreadfully nervous, run-down condition and loss of appetite. My nerves were in such an excited state

I would be awake hours at night unable to compose myself for sleep. I was eating but very little and became so run-down I always had a feeling of being weak and worn out.

"But I began to mend as soon as I started on Tanlac, and today I feel like a different person. I shall take more Tanlac this spring if I feel out of sorts, to make sure of not getting back in the condition I was in last fall. Tanlac is just wonderful and I will always praise it."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitutes. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.

TOWNSHIP SCHOOLS HOLD CONVENTION

Rev. Harman Gives Inspiring Talk At Big Gathering In Millville.

"Confidence" was the subject of an address by Rev. J. P. Harman at the afternoon session of the 181st Suiday school convention of Green township Sunday afternoon and evening at the Millville schoolhouse.

Rev. Mr. Harman's address was a masterly challenge to the officers and teachers and workers of the Sunday schools to put forth their best efforts to instill into the children the essentials to character building as revealed by God's word. It was an inspiring and optimistic discourse that was exceptionally well received.

The house was packed for this session. The eight schools of the township were well represented and reports from the superintendents indicated a flourishing activity in the work. Miss Mary McMurray, Salem, sang two solos, "Prayer Perfect" and "He Is Mine." Recitations were given by Ruth Moore and Miriam Sperling. A. G. Coburn, vice president of the association presided at this session in the absence of the president.

An inspirational address on "Why a Sunday School?" given by Mrs. H. P. Lowell, Salem, was a feature of the evening service. Miss McMurray sang "The Old Rugged Cross" and "The Ninety and Nine." Recitations were given by Marie Harbaugh and Doris Oesch. W. L. Holwick presided at this session.

The next convention will be the latter part of August at the M. E. church, Washingtonville. Officers of the association are: President, E. J. Justice; vice president, A. G. Coburn; secretary-treasurer, Lois Riller.

The well drew quite a number of interested persons from various points who pronounced it the best showing for gas ever produced in this locality.

Ar. Seneel expects to drill other wells on leases held by him in this locality.

CHINESE TROOPS PURSUE BANDITS AFTER KIDNAPING

17 Americans Are Captured
After Bandit Army
Derails Train.

THOUSANDS FLOCK
TO BANDITS GANG

Ultimatum Warns Captives
Will Be Killed Unless
Pursuit Is Ended.

Shanghai, May 7.—Ten thousand Chinese troops today were in pursuit of the bandit army which derailed the Shanghai-Peking express capturing 17 Americans and 12 other foreigners including subjects of England, France and Italy.

The bandit army today had increased from the estimated 1,000 who wrecked the train and captured its passengers to 8,000, having been strengthened by additions of well armed disbanded troops and notorious bandits.

Of the 300 odd passengers aboard the express train—one of China's crack trains—only six foreigners and 27 Chinese escaped the bandit horde which surrounded the train as it left the tracks at a point in Shantung province selected by the bandit chiefs for the holdup.

Great Army of Pursuers
Despite reports of the release of Miss Lucy Aldrich, sister-in-law of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., no direct word has been received from her. She is on a tour around the world from New York via India and had visited here for 10 days. She had intended going to Peking, Japan, and then to Europe.

Despite the ultimatum of the bandits that the captives would be killed unless pursuit was abandoned, a great army has been gathered from four provinces to take part in the chase.

The Americans aboard the train included, in addition to Miss Aldrich, Robert Scripps, American newspaper publisher, touring the Orient; Major Charles Bridge, a party of three by the name of Pratt; a Mr. Carpenter; Lloyd Lehrbas, former American newspaper man of Chicago, and J. B. Powell, former professor of journalism at the University of Missouri, now a correspondent in China.

A relief train has been rushed from Tientsin and advised from Peking today that American Minister Jacob Gould Schurman had left there for Shantung province to investigate the affair.

French, Italian and English consular officials have departed from here to the scene of the holdup in Shantung province.

The bandits, with their captives, are believed to be fleeing for Tushan Hu Lake, a wild rendezvous of outlaws, located in the mountains of South Shantung.

Loose Train, Take Prisoners
The bandit army which derailed the express train near Hsuehchow Sunday morning killing one foreigner and wounding six Chinese, was made up of discharged Anhwei troops.

All reports received here placed the number of bandits engaged in the holdup at about 1,000. From the meager first hand reports received here it is believed they were ambushed on each side of the track of the Tsin-Hien Pukow railroad from which a rail had been removed. When the train, which was first class in all its appointments, crashed into the ditch they surrounded the train, firing hundreds of shots. After looting the train its passengers, all save the handful that escaped in the confusion, were made captives.

CALL 100 PERSONS AS JURORS PROBE STUDENT'S DEATH

Fisherman Claims He Saw
Struggle In Which
Youth Was Killed.

Chicago, May 7.—More than 100 persons, including Walter Dill Scott, president of Northwestern university, have been summoned to appear before the May grand jury, which convenes today, to tell what they know regarding the disappearance of Leigh-Mount, Freshman student at the university, whose body was found a week ago beneath a pier at Evanston.

Charges have been made that Mount lost his life in a class fight with Sophomores and that his body was concealed under the pier after he had accidentally met death in the rough hazing.

Sensational evidence has been unearthed by attaches of the state's attorney's office. John Strom, a fisherman, has declared he saw the struggle in which the youth was killed, but officials are not placing strong credence in the story. They will check it over carefully.

Strom said he saw three men carry Mount's body to a pier three blocks from the one under which it was found, and lower it through a hole they had broken in the flooring. There was talk, Strom said, of putting sand in Mount's mouth to quiet his cries.

If, as Strom said, Mount's body was lowered into a hole in a pier, three blocks from where it was found, someone had moved it, a contention which has been advanced previously.

Search was being continued for J. Allan Mills, also a Freshman when Mount disappeared. His actions on the night of the class fight have excited interest in the minds of officers. He was said to have been extremely nervous when he returned home after taking part in the fight. He is said to have gone to California, but no one has been found who has seen him.

WOMEN RELEASED BY BANDIT ARMY

London, May 7.—All the women seized by Chinese bandits from a passenger train near the Shantung border, including Miss Lucy Aldrich, sister-in-law of J. D. Rockefeller, Jr., have been released according to a central news dispatch from Shanghai this evening. The dispatch did not say where the women were or whether any of them had suffered injuries.

PASTOR HURLS ATTACK AT MARATHON DANCES

Dancer Neglects Head-work To Develop Foot-work, Says
Rev. G. A. Beers—Calls Average Public Dance Subject For Thought For Home, Church, School.

In his second address on "Talks to Women About Women," Rev. Beers of the Baptist church Sunday night took for his subject, "The Great Head Dance," drawing the lessons from the account of Salome's dance before Herod and his court, Matthew 14:3-11.

"Many more heads were involved in this shameful incident than is generally supposed. The tragic death of the great preacher was only the natural result of causes which we seek to point out, of dangers which menace the morals and life of society.

The following excerpts from the sayings of Dr. Frank Crane, were read. "What causes you the most concern, the contents of your skull, or the mass below your collar bone?" "Are your thoughts flabby, uncontrolled, wayward, useless?" "Where do you get your pleasures? Is it dancing for your feet, meat for your belly, clothes for your back—Is all your fun in the cellar? Don't you have any fun in the attic? To what part of you is the towel fastened to your loins or to your forehead?" "What are you, anyhow; an animal pestered with a mind; or a soul prisoned in a body?"

He'll's Truismate
"He'll's truismate, wine, women and the dance was employed to make Herod, and his kind, 'lose their heads'."

Influenced by wine, carried away by the lust of animalism, men lose their reason, manhood is dethroned as the brute in man demands its prey. God pity men and women whose gratification must be in the cellar department of life!"

The preacher referred to instances when respected citizens had staged scenes similar to this in Herod's drunken court, when even young girls had been employed for such disgraceful affairs.

"The unfortunate girl was sent to a reformatory. The men, who should have been sent to the penitentiary, went scott free. The devil said, 'Get the big fellow, and wine, woman and the lewd dance appealing to passion carnality and shame toppled manhood from its throne and the king loses his head and puts a life in jeopardy. Heels and toes win over heads.'

Attacks Marathon Dancing
"The second head affected was that of the dancer. Where are the thought, sense of womanhood, modesty and chastity that would consent to such an exhibition? Ignored, banished, trampled under foot. Womanly grace, beauty and virtue cast aside in the wild appeal of fleshly pride and passion. Surely, such are he-roots of reason."

"The thinking world stands aghast at the recent foolishness of the marathon dancers. Something wrong in the upper story, fitly applies to this 'craze'."

"The average public dance, with immodesty in dress, scandalous positions, heathenish music and unholy hours furnishes a subject for thought for the home, church and school. If the standard of so-called public morals is to be maintained, the one institution that menaces that standard must be properly regulated and its dangers reduced to a minimum."

"The dancer, when confronted with a reward for her effort was unprepared to avail herself of the king's offer. Had she developed her head-work as she had her footwork, she

To Palestine.

John Alteen, operator of a soft drink establishment at the corner of Etna st and Broadway, was arrested Saturday afternoon by Constable Earl Ritchie, charged with illegal possession of liquor.

Alteen, who recently purchased the cafe from Alex Fratillo, has been under suspicion for some time and his place has been visited by both police and state officers on several occasions.

His arrest Saturday is said to have followed reports that men have been buying liquor in the establishment. Visiting the place Saturday afternoon, Constable Ritchie declares he entered just as Alteen was attempting to pour out a quantity of whiskey from a glass container for a sale.

Leaping the bar Ritchie grappled with Alteen who attempted to throw the container to the floor and destroy the evidence. During the struggle the bottle was thrown against the wall. Ritchie soaked a quantity of the booze in his handkerchief and gathered pieces of the bottle for evidence. These were sealed and will be used as evidence when Alteen faces trial Tuesday.

Alteen was taken to East Palestine by Ritchie and in default of bail was placed in the city jail there. He will be given a hearing Tuesday before Mayor Albert W. Ferren, Atty. J. L. Hilton of Canton, counsel for the Ohio Anti-Saloon League, will conduct the prosecution.

"Ritchie declared that his intentions in taking Alteen to East Palestine instead of before Mayor John W. Post was in order to collect the percentage of the fine allowed by the East Palestine court for apprehension of bootleggers. He declared he had damaged clothes in recent liquor raids staged by East Palestine officers and will be enabled to collect costs to pay for these in this manner."

TREASURY OFFERS 400 MILLION ISSUE

Short Term Notes Planned
To Complete Retiring
Of Victory Loans.

Washington, May 7.—Bringing to an end the first phase of the refinancing of the government's great war-time debt the treasury announces a new offering of $400,000,000 in treasury notes to complete the refunding and retiring of the Victory notes which when issued aggregated more than four billion dollars. The issues will bear 4% per cent interest and will mature March 15, 1927.

Secretary Mellon at the same time made a statement on the government's fiscal situation in which he declared the treasury's refunding operations had worked out so successfully that all of the short dated debt might be retired gradually from surplus revenues of the government prior to 1923 and without embarrassment to the heavy refinancing necessary in connection with maturity that year of the third Liberty loan.

Mellon predicted that the gross public debt of the nation would be reduced to about $22,400,000 by the end of the current fiscal year on June 30, a retirement of about $1,600,000 of federal securities since April 30, 1921. In this connection the secretary declared there would be a surplus of $65,000,000 more than estimated by the Director Lord of the budget who yesterday forecast that government would exceed expenditures by $60,000,000.

Armed Bandit Robs Cashier Of Theater

Cleveland, May 7.—An armed bandit held up and robbed the cashier of the State theatre last night, as she was counting the last receipts. He escaped with $35.

GIGANTIC FRAUD HURLS WALL ST. INTO PANIC

New York, May 7.—An amazing and almost unprecedented attempt to perpetrate a gigantic fraud on Wall st, threw the market into a panic today, shot prices up and down in a zigzag way and resulted in the immediate attempt on the part of the American Bankers association to run down the men behind the scene. It was a brand new fraud and by its extreme daring, took brokers off their feet. It was in the form of an avalanche of spurious checks all arriving at the same time and carrying the order to buy.

ONE MAN PERISHES IN INCENDIARY FIRE

Police Believe Fire May
Have Been Started To
Hide a Murder.

Chicago, May 7.—One man was burned to death, two other men probably fatally burned and two more seriously burned in a fire believed to have been of incendiary origin which early today destroyed a two-story frame rooming house at Gary, Ill., Chicago suburb. The police believe the fire may have been started to hide a murder.

The man known to be dead has not been identified as his body has not been recovered. It was exposed to view by the collapse of a wall. Police officers said they could observe a great gash in the back of the man's head, unexplained since there are no fallen timbers near the body. The ruins were so hot that it was impossible to remove the body.

Police placed under arrest a man who had been discovered fleeing from the house. He gave his name as Peter Kazak, 35, said to have been a boarder at the house. Kazak, according to Captain of Police Plummer, could give no satisfactory explanation of his reasons for fleeing from the burning building without making any effort to arouse its 24 other occupants.

"Barleycorn Kelly," New Cork Headgear For Men, Is Latest

Atlantic City, May 7.—Dame Fashion gave way to Mr. Style on the boardwalk Sunday.

Wore man, who year after year has been content to permit the fair sex to set the pace in apparel innovations, staged a revolt and took the lead—for the day at least. He introduced the cork hat.

Within a half hour of the appearance of the first new twist in headgear it had been dubbed the "barleycorn kelly" and the wearers drew down as much attention from the parading thousands as would have been expected had they adopted a champagne bucket for top pieces.

The cork hats appeared in all the popular shapes that the ordinary straw "kuty" flashed in the first big showing today. Fancy grains were given free rein in the material along with nifty bands and the new bonnets were distinctly the hit of the boardwalk revue throughout the day.

Wearers declared them more comfortable than the ordinary hay hats because of lighter weight and pointed out the additional advantage of the waterproof cork.

DR. CONRAD RAIDS HOME IN LEETONIA MONDAY MORNING

Whisky, Wine And Beer Are Found In Many Large
Containers.

BERG ISN'T HELD,
AWAIT ANALYSIS

Search Warrant Is Issued
On Orders From State
Dry Commissioner.

Dry law enforcement in Columbiana county turned its spotlight on County Commissioner Conrad Berg Monday, when Dr. S. E. Conrad, dry law officer working out of Mayor A. W. Ferren's court in East Palestine, searched Berg's automobile in Lisbon and later searched the Berg home in Leetonia.

The auto contained no evidence but at the home the officer confiscated large quantities of whisky, beer and wines. Dr. Conrad used a search warrant issued by Mayor Ferren under instructions from State Probation Officer B. F. McDonald of Columbus.

In Berg's stock at his home in Leetonia were found these quantities of liquors:

Four fifty-gallon barrels of wine, one-half barrel of wine, two barrels of hard cider, seven five-gallon jugs of wine, four ten-gallon kegs of wine, 10 one-gallon jugs of wine, one two-gallon jug of wine, 18 quart bottles of wine, one gallon of whisky, two bottles of beer and other numerous containers filled with liquor.

A number of "empties" were also found by Dr. S. E. Conrad, who conducted the search.

After securing the search warrant Officer Conrad went to Lisbon where he searched Berg's car, finding no evidence. He then encountered Berg, showed him the warrant to search his home and started for Leetonia, accompanied by Berg. After the search was made Berg returned to Lisbon to attend a meeting of the county commissioners.

Samples of each of the containers were taken and will be sent to Columbus for analysis. The rest of the liquor was removed to East Palestine. Mr. Berg was not placed under bond and he will not be called for hearing until a report of the analysis is returned from Columbus.

During the investigation Mr. Berg informed Dr. Conrad that the liquor is some that he had kept stored in his pretzel factory, and that he had just recently removed it from the factory to his residence in Leetonia.

RICH IS ARRESTED ON GIRL'S CHARGE

Young Man, Freed On
Bond, Denies Disorderly
Conduct Charge.

Charged with disorderly conduct and violence, William Rich of East Fifth st, was arrested early Sunday morning by Officers Kirkbride and Bryn and lodged in the city jail until Sunday when he was released on bond of $200 for his appearance before Mayor John W. Post at 7 p. m. Monday for trial.

Rich is alleged to have attempted to assault a young girl, late Thursday night when she was enroute to her home. He is said to have followed her and when she neared her home, stopped her and attempted to place his arm around her.

According to information furnished police, Rich is alleged to have attempted to prevent the girl from going home and a scuffle followed during which she escaped. She was uninjured.

The girl filed an affidavit in police court Saturday night charging Rich with attempted assault. He was arrested at his home early Sunday morning. He denies the charges.

Police say that Rich is charged with having followed the girl on other occasions and that her mother has been forced to meet her to take her home on other occasions because of Rich's attentions.

Salem People Guests Of Church In Canton

A number of young people and other members of the First Christian church motored to Canton Sunday morning where they attended Sunday school and communion at the First Christian church. Arrangements had been made for their reception at that church, the largest religious institution in Canton.

The guests made a tour of inspection through the church visiting the various classes and departments numbering more than 40 in all. They were told much of the history of the Canton church and the guides explained in detail the methods and systems carried out in the church. A short reception was held at the conclusion of the communion service.

From Coast To Coast
AMERICAN aviators are monarchs of the air. The great transcontinental nonstop flight has established a new record in world aeronautics. Lieutenant Carcady and Lieutenant Kelly are the world's pioneers in this surpassing achievement. Their success opens up a vista of startling speculation with reference to future developments in the future conquest of the ether deeps.

Speeding at an average rate of 160 miles an hour, the ponderous T-2, one of the heaviest machines in use, made its epochal flight under the guidance of daring pilots without the slightest mishap, and New York clasped the hand of California in celebration of a new and surpassing achievement in human experience.

What does the accomplishment of this great feat mean to this nation and to the world? If the slow-moving T-2 can span the continent with ease within 27 hours, what will be the early records made by the swift, lighter machines? The answer is fairly obvious. From New York to San Francisco during the hours of daylight soon may become a common-place event.

But if a great machine like the T-2 can cross the continent in but a little more than a day, similar great machines as easily can cross from possible enemy shores to our own in crisis of war. The daring young Americans who have demonstrated what can be done in this matter have emphasized further the importance of the airship in future human conflicts between nation and nation. It now readily may be understood how much we may have to depend on this agency in the development of the national defense. The government should not be slow to profit by this latest lesson, whose potentialities for war or peace are beyond computation.

It also may be taken for granted that foreign nations will be spurred to greater effort in the development of the science of aeronautics by this triumph of American inventive genius, courage and endurance. In the meantime, all honor and praise to the gallant adventurers who so conspicuously have distinguished their country by an accomplishment which challenges the wonder, respect and admiration of the civilized world.

Purchase of the farm as a city park site was given the formal support of city council at a special meeting Friday night.

20 Arrested In Wet Raid At Steubenville

Steubenville, O., May 7.—Thirty federal prohibition agents from State Director Russell's office in Columbus Saturday night raided five places in the business section of this city confiscating 600 cases of beer, 210 gallons of whisky and about 50 quarts of gin, besides much paraphernalia for making liquor.
The places raided were James Cassell's restaurant, Jones' hotel, Frank Higgins's confectionery, Frank Kelly's soft drink establishment and "Shifty Burns" place. The proprietors and 15 assistants were arrested and held in jail without bond. They will be given a hearing before United States Commissioner Nelson D. Miller.
The Jones hotel, one of the places raided, adjoins the city building and police station.

HALF OF TRUMBULL FARM LANDS IDLE

Warren, O., May 7.—More than 50 per cent of the farm land in Trumbull county is not being worked this season because the steel mills, with high wages, are attracting men to the manufacturing centers, according to County Farm Agent Guy Miller.
Not only the farm laborer, but the farmers themselves are working in town, especially those owning farms of from three to 50 acres, says Mr. Miller, who maintains that conditions in Trumbull are as bad or worse than elsewhere in the state. This fact is attributed mostly to the steel mills.
Recently unemployed statistics, furthermore, show that numerous farms have been abandoned. In 1919 there were 4155 farms in this county, a large increase over the total of 1909 due to the subdivision of farms near growing communities such as Sharon and Warren. But there are now only 2911 farms in the county though the subdividing has been going on more rapidly in the last ten years than during the decade previous, giving evidence of large areas of abandoned farms.

Women Inventing Everything From Planes To New Noses

Women are inventing everything from internal combustion engines and dirigible airships to voting booths and nose straighteners, according to a report to be issued in a few days by the Women's bureau of the U. S. department of labor. This report is a study of the inventions made by women during ten years, as shown by the records of the U. S. patent office, and it uncovers an amazing variety of inventive activities among women.

In the ten years studied more than 5,000 patents were issued to women. By far the larger number of these patents were concerned with household equipment and articles for personal wear and use, but other inventions covered the entire field of industries and professions. The record shows that women have invented a large number of devices to facilitate work on farms because they have seen the hardship or the fatigue incurred by one or another method of doing things. The report contains many quotations from such women who told just what had led to the invention they had patented. One woman who had contrived a fertilizer distributor wrote that her invention had been brought about by "Yankee laziness. I reckon—I didn't like the idea of bending my back so much—hence the distributor."

Other fields which have been served by the inventive abilities of women are mining and quarrying; various processes of manufacture for which tools, machinery and methods have been devised; structural equipment, such as road conduits, and house-building parts; transportation which includes all kinds of automobile accessories as well as airships, boats and many contrivances for steam and street railways; scientific instruments; ordnance, firearms, and ammunition; medical equipment such as stretchers, bandages, and surgical instruments; office supplies and equipment; toys; children's clothes; camping equipment. This is only a small part of the list which is given in detail in the bulletin.

Because of the great variety of the items in the lists given, the Women's bureau draws a conclusion that the work of women along the lines of invention and improvement should be encouraged and developed. The report emphasizes the fact that women are under a considerable psychological handicap when it comes to carrying an invention through from the time of its conception until it is successfully patented and marketed.

As an illustration of this handicap is given a quotation from the encyclopedia which says, in discussing patents, "women, minors, and even convicts may apply for patents under our law." This psychological attitude which places women as beings, incapable of inventive or origination activities, is not borne out by the records, which themselves, the report concludes, do not tell the whole story. For it is not unlikely that many patents taken out by men have originated in the feminine branch of the family.

Building Gains 95 Percent In Warren

Warren, May 7. — The value of buildings for which permits have been issued here during the first four months of the year is 95 per cent greater than for the same period in 1922, a report issued by one city building inspector shows.

The greatest increase is noted in dwellings, though increase in other classes has been substantial. A comparison of permits issued in April, 1922, with those issued in April, 1934, shows an even greater increase with emphasis again on dwellings.

During the period from Jan. 1 to May 1, 1934, a total of 181 permits was issued for buildings with a valuation of $332,678. For the same period this year 298 permits were issued with a total valuation of $659,319.

54 DEAD, HUNDRED OVERCURE BY GAS POSONING IN OHIO

More than 50 deaths from carbon-monoxide poisoning and 100 partial asphyxiations constitute the winter's sinister record of gas heaters in Ohio as reported to the state department of health. It is safe to assume that this is by no means complete, as reporting began some time after the Lancaster and Columbus tragedies, costing eight lives, directed the attention of the department specifically to the menace.

So the record since Nov. 1, 1922, stands at 54 deaths and 100 partial asphyxiations; with the virtual certainty that there were many unreported cases in both classes, and the added certainty that hundreds, probably thousands, of other persons suffered permanent impairment of health from breathing the products of imperfect gas combustion.

Specifically, there were 39 deaths and 44 partial asphyxiations from gas room heaters, and 15 deaths and 54 partial asphyxiations from gas fired water heaters, hot plates, an electric gas-burning device aside from room heaters. There were five deaths and two partial asphyxiations due to automobile fumes in garages.

Carbon-monoxide poisoning, according to Edwin, a well known health authority, is now and since the discovery of fire has been the most widespread poisoning in connection with human life and activities. We have long been familiar with it in industrial pursuits and more recently in connection with motor cars and gas engines in confined places like garages or basements.

A recent report by a consulting gas expert states that there are over 2,000 natural-gas-using towns and over 4,600 manufactured-gas-using towns in the United States, and that gas is used by over one-half of our population. It is estimated that there are over four million users of gas in Ohio alone.

Artificial gas creates a double hazard, as carbon-monoxide is an inportant component and therefore death may result from simply breathing it, as from unsuspected leaks. Natural gas does not contain carbon monoxide or other readily toxic ingredients, but if burned, incompletely as most frequently happens from a poor or defective air-mixer in a gas stove built on the Dunsen principle, will readily yield death-dealing amounts of the gas. So also will any carbon containing fuel.

The heaviest metal in common use is iridium, which is used chiefly for tipping the nibs of fountain pens.

Your blood changes in the Spring. Why?

YOUR blood is thicker and more sluggish in Winter than in Summer—it has to be to keep you warm. Then comes warmer days and lighter clothes. Your blood, still thick and heavy-laden, is slow to throw off its impurities. What happens? The impurities crowd out through the skin—boils and pimples appear—you feel sluggish and tired! The remedy for this condition is S. S. S. It is the ideal blood purifier, because the medicinal properties are purely vegetable. It is a glorious fact that S. S. S. has given new, long-forgotten strength to older people and has made many old and young people look years younger. Blood is life—it's your foundation—make it rich—get blood strength—we need it, especially rheumatics. S. S. S. will give you greater energy, strength and endurance.

Mr. Harry C. Bachman, 4736 Main Avenue, Norwood, Ohio, writes: "I had skin eruptions—pimples and blackheads. I took S. S. S. and was happily surprised at the results I got in less than three weeks' time."

Try it yourself. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size is more economical. Get a bottle today!

Well Planted Trees Makes Best Growth, Says State Expert

A well planted tree has an advantage, and good nursery stock should be obtained if possible, for a poor tree, even at a low cost, is not a good investment, said J. H. Goulet, horticulturist of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment station, in a recent discussion of the subject.

"Broken and mangled roots should be removed before planting and the longer ones may be shortened. The tree roots should be kept moist until planting. If they have dried out somewhat it would be well to soak them up or dip in a container of thin mud before planting. This is known by orchardists as puddling the roots."

"Holes should be dug of sufficient size to amply hold the tree roots but care should be taken not to plant the trees too deep. Doubtless this is a cause for many trees doing poorly, particularly the peach. The best rule is to plant slightly deeper than the trees stood in the nursery."

"After the trees are placed in the hole some of the surface soil is thrown in and the tree is moved up and down to allow the soil to settle about the roots and leave no air spaces. When the roots are covered the planter should tramp the soil well and fill up to the surface of the ground, tramp again and throw a little loose soil on top as a mulch."

"It is best to use no manure about the roots of the tree but spread it on the surface after the tree is planted. A small amount of well rotted manure may be used in filling in the holes if the soil is very poor. After the trees are planted they may be pruned to balance up the loss of the root system."

Pinchbeck.

To a notorious resident of London we owe the word "pinchbeck." This person, Pinchbeck by name, lived toward the close of the Eighteenth century in the vicinity of the Strand, and manufactured a compound metal which had some of the glitter of gold, but was readily distinguishable from the precious metal by its lesser weight and other palpable differences.

Consequently Pinchbeck's name was eventually applied to shams, counterfeits and spurious things.

As a noun it was, and still is, applied to an alloy of copper and zinc formerly much used in the manufacture of inexpensive jewelry. This alloy, though it presented the appearance of gold, was a cheap substance. —Chicago Journal.

Big Irrigation Plan.

A great irrigation project, which is of interest because it is located in the heart of the dark continent, has been recently completed. It is known as the Lake Mentz conservation works, and is located along the lower reaches of Sunday's river. It is second only to the great Assuan dam in Egypt in size and importance. The new dam is 150 feet high and the length of the top is 1,150 feet. It lapounds 25,700,000,000 gallons of water and submerges 4,000 acres of land. It means the redemption of a great deal of land which will be used for agricultural and stock-raising purposes.

would have had ability to choose, would and reign over a kingdom offered her. So called physical grace had been developed at the expense of her mentality.

Dance Craze In Schools

"The record of the dance craze in the lives of the student body of our schools is sufficient to cause serious concern on the part of our homes. At class functions, the dance is the center attraction and though parents protest, and educational boards of seek to change this custom they are even quiet with the terms of the young people that they dance or quit."

"Thus we see the dance instinct is in man; for different reasons he has always danced and possibly always will. The heathen in their horrid unspeakable customs, our native American Indians with their snake, green corn and war dances; our forefathers and their graceful, dignified and sensible steps."

The question confronting us today is whether this natural propensity shall be allowed to run riot and continue its work of moral ruin in so many lives, or whether it shall be judiciously controlled and the lives and characters of our young people safeguarded. Must reason be dethroned and heels win out over heads? The dancer lost her head and losing it, lost the prize her feet had won.

Loses Her Head

"The third head involved was that of Herodias, the Bloody Mary of the Bible. Her was the only brain in normal condition, but when the opportunity for revenge came, the spirit of hate and murder overpowered her reason and she 'lost her head,' in the wild passion to get even with the one that had reprieved her for her wickedness and when asked by her unthinking daughter to suggest a gift from the king, she seizes the opportune time to secure the killing of John the Baptist."

"To some the truth brings repentance, salvation and gratitude; to others, resentment and anger and hatred. Herodias never forgave the faithful preacher, and her time to 'get even' has come. She, with the fierceness of a tigress, seizes this opportunity, and we have the spectacle of another 'losing her head,' as they allow passion and hate to prevail 'heels over heads' again. The animal in the ascendency."

"Head number four to fall was that of John, the fearless preacher."

Electric Service
Never
"Soars"
in Price!

Nearly all other commodities do. Look at sugar! Going up again after striking rock bottom. Every time you enter a store you find some other necessity rising in price after the recent slump. Some commodities have never really gotten back to normal since the war—probably never will.

But your rate for electric current remains the same—month in and month out—and this in spite of the mounting costs of material and labor which this company is constantly facing.

Think of "press the button" convenience any time—day or night! Yet your average daily current consumption costs less than the bottle of milk left at your doorstep!

WILL MARK GRAVES OF UNKNOWN DEAD

Indianapolis, Ind., May 7.—Success of the American Legion Graves Endowment fund, providing flowers in perpetuity for the resting places of American World war dead, means that 1313 unmarked graves of heroes will annually be decorated. In the eight United States cemeteries in Europe, now shrines of patriotism for Americans, rest the bodies of nearly a regiment of "unknown dead." The inclusion of the unmarked crypts among the 32,000 other American graves in Europe, will reconsecrate their graves with the others still remaining in foreign soil.

Practically every post of the Legion in the nation has joined in the campaign to raise this endowment fund that the memories of those who made the supreme sacrifice shall be recalled. Post members have set out determined not only to raise the quota set for them for this fund, but to exceed this whenever possible. Mass meetings, personal solicitations and broad publicity campaigns have been utilized by legionnaires to secure the necessary funds for the endowment. Increases in receipts have been steadily noted, and many department organizations of the Legion are already over the quota set. Mexico has reported 68 per cent more than allocated, and France has raised 160,000 francs for the fund. Contributions from nationally known men and women are received almost daily.

MEMORIAL PLANS AT COUNTY SEAT

Lisbon, May 7.—Over four hundred bouquets of flowers will be made by members of the W. R. C. and the auxiliaries of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars for the decoration of the graves of the soldier dead and the W. R. C. in Lisbon cemetery and 13 county cemeteries near this village previous to Memorial day.

At the meeting held yesterday afternoon Commander Vogan of the G. A. R. post, assisted by the soldier organizations of the town, planned for the memorial services. Memorial Sunday will be observed with union services at the U. P. church with Rev. George Roseburg preaching the annual sermon.

On Memorial day the patriotic organizations will assemble at the city hall and march to the opera house where at 1 o'clock the service of the day will be held. Rev. David E. Scott of the Methodist church will deliver the annual address following which the parade will form and march to the cemetery. On the Sunday preceding Memorial day, squads from the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion will decorate the graves in West Beaver, Lebanon, Carlisle, Trinity, Frost, Miller, Church Hill, Zion, Lee, Kamball, White Church, St. Jacobs and Vanfossen's cemeteries.

"The Tanlac treatment gets all the thanks for my splendid health. I have not the slightest doubt but that it is the best medicine made, and I don't intend to be without it," declared Mrs. Anna Throckmorton, 529 33rd St., Portsmouth, Ohio.

I would be awake hours at night unable to compose myself for sleep. I was eating but very little and became so run-down I always had a feeling of being weak and worn out.

"But I began to mend as soon as I started on Tanlac, and today I feel like a different person. I shall take more Tanlac this spring if I feel out of sorts, to make sure of not getting back in the condition I was in last fall. Tanlac is just wonderful and I will always praise it."

TOWNSHIP SCHOOLS HOLD CONVENTION

Rev. Harman Gives Inspiring Talk At Big Gathering In Millville.

"Confidence" was the subject of an address by Rev. J. P. Harman at the afternoon session of the 181st Sunday school convention of Green township Sunday afternoon and evening at the Millville schoolhouse.

Rev. Mr. Harman's address was a masterly challenge to the officers and teachers and workers of the Sunday schools to put forth their best efforts to instill into the children the essentials to character building as revealed by God's word. It was an inspiring and optimistic discourse that was exceptionally well received.

The house was packed for this session. The eight schools of the township were well represented and reports from the superintendents indicated a flourishing activity in the work. Miss Mary McMurray, Salem, sang two solos, "Prayer Perfect" and "He Is Mine." Recitations were given by Ruth Moore and Miriam Sperling. A. G. Coburn, vice president of the association presided at this session in the absence of the president.

An inspirational address on "Why a Sunday School?" given by Mrs. H. P. Lowell, Salem, was a feature of the evening service. Miss McMurray sang "The Old Rugged Cross" and "The Ninety and Nine." Recitations were given by Marie Harbaugh and Doris Oesch. W. L. Holwick presided at this session.

The next convention will be the latter part of August at the M. E. church, Washingtonville. Officers of the association are: President, E. J. Justice; vice president, A. G. Coburn; secretary-treasurer, Lois Roller.

STRIKE GAS WELL NEAR COLUMBIANA

Columbiana, May 7.—Every day brings new developments in the oil and gas field south of Columbiana. The latest is a gas well drilled in Thursday evening on the Caldwell lease one-half mile south of Columbiana on the Deer Park rd. The well was drilled in by Grant Sensel, of Carnegie, Pa., formerly a Columbiana boy.

The well drew quite a number of interested persons from various points who pronounced it the best showing for gas ever produced in this section.

Mr. Sensel expects to drill other wells on leases held by him in this locality.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lozy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

Don't buy a new Suit..
Clean the Old One

PERHAPS that old suit is beginning to look a little shabby, shiny, and out of shape. Or maybe the new one is bagging a bit, or bulging unpleasantly at the elbows.

In either event let us have it a day or two, and see how smartly it will become its old self, and how much it will add to your own good appearance. You will be pleasantly surprised, too, at the extra wear you'll be able to get out of it.

This holds true, also, of your overcoats, gloves, and other outer apparel. Send the whole lot of them today.

A phone call will bring us. What's equally important, we will have them back to you in almost no time at all.
